The 70th anniversary of the victory in the Fatherland Liberation War is being celebrated across the DPRK as an auspicious holiday of the country and its people in the glorious course of glorifying heroic Korea’s history and traditions of great succession and dashing toward a greater victory under the uplifted banner of independence in politics, self-sufficiency in the economy and self-reliance in national defence, guided by the ever-victorious Workers’ Party of Korea. All the people are filled with great pride and confidence of greeting the 70th war victory anniversary with the unshakable faith and will to give eternal continuity to the undying history of the war victory which saved the new-born republic from the danger of collapse and preserved human peace by averting a new world war with the inexhaustible strength resulting from the single-minded unity around the great leader and the great Party and indomitable fighting spirit.

A grand military parade took place in Pyongyang, the capital of the DPRK, on the evening of July 27, the eternal war victory holiday of the glorious DPRK, in celebration of the 70th anniversary of the victory in the great Fatherland Liberation War.

The sculpture “Victory”, symbolic of the history of war and people of the DPRK who inflicted the most miserable defeat upon the US imperialists in the history of war and brought about the beginning of rain for 70 years, was shedding its bright rays on Kim Il Sung Square, where an endless surge of excitement was looking up to the platform of the military parade to add to the joy of the people who have celebrated July 27 representing victory and glory of Juche Korea.

With cheerful melodies and dynamic rhythms, the music players represented the great joy and excitement that filled the square, celebrating the war victory 70 years ago and the proud history of the great victory in the face of the stern imperialist enemies in one generation.

Then, when the waving banner was held aloft in the van of the procession, the grand parade began with the entry of Choe Yong Rim, a war veteran, and the grand parade square amid the display of flames of the war, to members of the KPA.

Then followed a review of the military parade and the participants in the celebrations broke into stormy cheers of “Hurrah!” as a token of their highest tribute to Kim Jong Un, outstanding leader and the great brilliant commander, who has demonstrated invincibility in the confrontation with the US-led imperialists spanning the two centuries were brought and lined up to the entrance to the square. All the members of the military parade were looking up to the platform of the square, greatly excited to be reviewed by Kim Jong Un, symbol of the mightiness and justice began fluttering at the top of the flagpole.

A 21-gun salute was fired to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the victory in the Fatherland Liberation War.

Kang Sun Nam, member of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the WPK and minister of National Defence of the DPRK, made a speech. He said that it is a great honour of the service personnel of the armed forces of the DPRK and a great auspicious event for all the Korean people to hold a military parade for celebrating the war victory day where the shots of “Hurrah!” reverberated with the joy over the great victory after firmly defending the country from the armed invasion by the US imperialists and their vassal forces 70 years ago.

Singing the military parade, which will show the glory of the great victory through a striking demonstration of great strength, shall be the greatest-ever one in the world, the most unique and presentational festival for marking the victory in the face, the speaker stressed that the DPRK, led by the invincible revolutionary Party and the outstanding leader, will properly foresee and the great Korean people propelling the revolutionary cause of socialism will always set their sights to the sky.

Then followed a review of the military parade and the participants in the celebrations broke into stormy cheers of “Hurrah!” as a token of their highest tribute to Kim Jong Un, outstanding leader and the great brilliant commander, who has demonstrated invincibility in the confrontation with the US-led imperialists spanning the two centuries were brought and lined up to the entrance to the square.

Also, the participants in the celebrations of the 70th anniversary of the victory in the Fatherland Liberation War, including war veterans, persons of wartime merit, persons of exemplary traits in supporting the army, persons of merits, labour innovations, exemplary service persons and descendants of martyrs, were present on the reviewing stands.

A ceremony of hoisting the national flag of the DPRK was solemnly held. To the tune of the song “The National Flag” that instills patriotism into all people, a formation depicting the DPRK Hero Motal entered the square, being reviewed by the columns of the KPA combined units at all levels.

Along with the splendid Hero Motal that represents the spirit of the heroic people who defended the two formidable imperialist enemies in one generation, the music players and the participants in the celebrations broke into stormy cheers of “Hurrah!” as a token of their highest tribute to Kim Jong Un, outstanding leader and the great brilliant commander, who has demonstrated invincibility in the confrontation with the US-led imperialists spanning the two centuries were brought and lined up to the entrance to the square.

the excitement and joy on the historic liberation day.

The columns symbolic of the guards anti-aircraft units, which succeeded in making the twin-screw cruiser USS Baltimore and a light cruiser six torpedo boats rendered ineffective and in fighting off the American aerial fortress, in the early days of the war. The scenes of anti-aircraft combat were a reminder to the spectators of the trench warfare in which the guards anti-aircraft units operated and of the aerial battles.

The columns of aviators, which flew more than 640 enemy planes during the war, moved past the square with artillery pieces shining with their heroic feats.

Division renowned for its high mobility and serial strike warfare and the columns of the Andong 12th Infantry Division, a unit of which fought in the eastern mountainous areas, went past the square holding the portraits of Hero Han Kye Ryol who pioneered the movement of “By His Height” and Hero Jo Sun Ok and Hero Kang Ho Yong who became human bombs during the war. Then, the columns of the Guards 10th Infantry Regiment, which was led by Tank No. 312, which had rushed to the battlefront, and the Guards 14th Infantry Regiment, went past the square, reminding the spectators of the ecstatic-joy joy on the historic liberation day.

The columns symbolic of the units of iron-claw tigers, the units of mountainous areas, and the guards anti-aircraft units, which successfully carried out the capital city anti-air defence duty to defend the security of the Supreme Headquarters and shot down or damaged more than 400 enemy planes during the war, moved past the square with artillery pieces shining with their heroic feats.

the great joy and festive mood on the war victory day.

A flight column depicting five-pointed stars and figure “70” flew across the sky of July above the square, representing the history of the great war victory of the DPRK unprecedented in the history of the world wars in the light of ferocity and heroism.

The columns of mechanized units started their parade, showing the mightiness, modernity and will of the revolutionary armed forces of the DPRK to deal merciless blows at the descendants of aggressors in the acute confrontation which continues generation after generation.

for guaranteeing the eternal purity of the revolutionary cause of Juche, and the column of the Worker-Peasant Red Guards, who are making full preparations for all people’s resistance by turning every part of the country into iron wall, went past the square with loud footsteps.

Entering the square with the militant spirit to perform feats in the frontline of the class struggle were the columns of the Ministry of State Security, the Ministry of Public Security and the armed mobile unit of the Public Security Forces, which are demonstrating their might as the WPK’s reliable political security units reliably defending the precious gains of the socialist country and the security of the people and the elite units holding a part of the revolutionary armed forces.

Kim Jong Un waved his hand as a token of his encouragement at the paraders who filled their single mind of upholding the party Central Committee with the spirit of the victorious wartime generation out of their pledge of faith to glorify for seven hundred, seven thousand years the history of the great war victory and the 70-year-long history of struggle for preserving that victory.

The square was rocked by the loud chants of pledge by all the paraders to continue their dynamic advance for the permanent might and victory of the DPRK under the leadership of Kim Jong Un, the most brilliant commander in the world.

The columns of the main tanks, which will dash ahead in the van of the decisive battle for territorial restoration while giving vent to the bitter grudge of the victorious wartime generation who had to stop their advance near the southern coast of the country due to the lack of weapons, and the columns of artillerymen, the primary service of the People’s Army, who will open up the road of advance of the frontline units with merciless gunfire, roared past the square.

The columns of tactical and long-range cruise missile units, which are on standby for fire, entered the square, declaring before the world the toughest stand of the revolutionary armed forces of the DPRK to mount unprecedentedly powerful final annihilating strikes upon the enemy in response to their frontal challenge.
General Secretary Kim Jong Un visits war martyrs cemetery

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers’ Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, visited the Fatherland Liberation War Martyrs’ Cemetery on July 25 on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of victory in the great Fatherland Liberation War.

He was accompanied by Minister Kang Se Nam and other commanding officers of the DPRK Ministry of National Defence and commanders of the services and large combined units of the Korean People’s Army.

Kim Jong Un laid a flower at the Fatherland Liberation War Martyrs’ Cemetery.

He paid high tribute to the martyrs of the great years who honourably defended the sovereignty and security of the country and people with bloody victory and at a heavy cost and provided the precious ideological and moral heritage and tradition of victory as an eternally irrevocable cornerstone for the mightiness of the DPRK.

He said that the miracle of July 27 the first defenders of the DPRK brought about while reliably safeguarding the security of the country and people was a genuine example of defending the country and peace which clearly impressed the world with the unity of the people’s country and just state that no power can conquer, he stressed that this is the proud dignity and prestige established in the 5 000-year-long history of the Korean nation.

The columns of the latest weaponry, which have become stepping-stones for giving eternal vitality to the name and the flag of the DPRK and rapidly enhancing the columns of the most powerful core mainstay of the strategic force of the DPRK, the new-type ICBM Hwasongpho-18, representing the might of the nuclear combat force of the DPRK, firmly set the stage for the victory in the great Fatherland Liberation War.

The military parade for celebrating the 70th anniversary of the victory in the Fatherland Liberation War will be recorded in the history of the country as a grand political and military festival which demonstrated to the world the unshakable will of all the service personnel and people of the DPRK to accelerate the overall prosperity and development of socialism and create a new myth of war victory.

All the participants broke into inmenous cheers of “Hurrah!” and up to Kim Jong Un, peerless patriot and immortal commander, added glory to the fame and honour of the DPRK, won by the victorious wartime generation 70 years ago, at the highest-ever level in the history of the nation and provided an ever-victorious treasured sword to be handed down to posterity with his strong pluck, far-sightedness and extraordinary leadership ability.

At the end of the parade, thunderous cheers of excitement again reverberated far and wide and fireworks were displayed in the nocturnal sky of the war victory.

Kim Jong Un warmly waved his hands to acknowledge the enthusiastically cheering crowds.

Grand performance given to celebrate 70th anniversary of great war victory

Kim Jong Un enjoys performance with goodwill missions on visit to Pyongyang

KCNA

A grand celebration performance was given at 9:00 p.m. on July 27, adding to the joy and excitement of celebrating the 70th anniversary of the victory in the Fatherland Liberation War shown as a symbol of its history and justice along with its great eminence of victory in the course of the development of the democratic People’s Republic of Korea, as a grand festival of glory and success to be specially recorded in history.

The performance venue was overflowing with the great passion and emotion lavished by them out of their confidence in victory during the three-year-long war with fear and death, blood and tears and love and hatred, the performers impressively sang what a storm-shaking resistance the heroic army and people of the DPRK waged to preserve the dignity and prestige of their country.

When Chinese and Russian martial songs specially selected for goodwill missions visiting Pyongyang were put on the stage, the audience lifted their hearts, singing along with their friendly voice resounding throughout the venue, the audience broke into loud applause with boundless reverence for the perfectly brilliant commander who reliably protected the destiny of the country and peace of humankind by winning a great victory in the fierce anti-imperialist, anti-US war started with his Juche-oriented military idea, outstanding strategy and tactics and iron faith and will.

“My Country is Called Kim Il Sung”, the performers sang highly of the greatest-ever feats of President Kim Il Sung, who trained the Korean people to be the strongest of mankind in the grim period when the imperialist tyranny and the revolution for independence against imperialism were steadily carried forward and developed century after century.

The performance ended with the finale “The People Offer Glory to the Party” and “July 27, Our Victory Day”. At the end of the performance, the audience again broke into enthusiastic cheers. Kim Jong Un warmly acknowledged their cheers, congratulating the performers on their successful performance.

The performance was given by leading art troops including the State Merited Chorus, the Ensemble of the State Affairs Commission and the Wangjaesan Art Troupe, and social and military art troops and artists and students of art education institutions.

Put on the stage of the performance, which started with overtures “Tell, Fireworks of War Victory” and “July 27, Our Victory Day”, were wartime songs, hymns for the war victory, songs of faith popular during the years of success and other numbers.

Pretty children presented fragrant bouquets to Kim Jong Un. Children presented bouquets to the heads of the delegations.

Years have passed and generation has been replaced with new one, he affirmed that the WPK and the DPRK government will go on striving to further strengthen the friendship and solidarity with the℡ Internal Chinese people and always advance hand in hand with the Chinese people in the struggle for socialism.

When Kim Jong Un appeared at the theatre auditorium with the heads of the delegations, stormy cheers of the audience shook the theatre.

Members of the President of the Political Bureau of the WPK Central Committee, cadres of the Party, the government and the military, and the participants in the celebrations including war veterans and persons of wartime merits watched the performance.

Seeing the Korean people will never forget the fact that the brave soldiers of the Chinese People’s Volunteers shed blood to bring about the war victory and their noble spirit and soul though many passion and emotion lavished by them out of their confidence in victory during the three-year-long war with fear and death, blood and tears and love and hatred, the performers impressively sang what a storm-shaking resistance the heroic army and people of the DPRK waged to preserve the dignity and prestige of their country.

When Chinese and Russian martial songs specially selected for goodwill missions visiting Pyongyang were put on the stage, the audience lifted their hearts, singing along with their friendly voice resounding throughout the venue, the audience broke into loud applause with boundless reverence for the perfectly brilliant commander who reliably protected the destiny of the country and peace of humankind by winning a great victory in the fierce anti-imperialist, anti-US war started with his Juche-oriented military idea, outstanding strategy and tactics and iron faith and will.

“My Country is Called Kim Il Sung”, the performers sang highly of the greatest-ever feats of President Kim Il Sung, who trained the Korean people to be the strongest of mankind in the grim period when the imperialist tyranny and the revolution for independence against imperialism were steadily carried forward and developed century after century.

The performance ended with the finale “The People Offer Glory to the Party” and “July 27, Our Victory Day”. At the end of the performance, the audience again broke into enthusiastic cheers. Kim Jong Un warmly acknowledged their cheers, congratulating the performers on their successful performance.
He gladly met and exchanged warm greetings with Sergei Shoigu. He warmly welcomed the visit of the Russian military delegation to the DPRK and had a friendly talk with Sergei Shoigu on the occasion. Shoigu courteously conveyed an autograph letter from Russian President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin to the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un. He expressed deep thanks for it and presented his souvenir to Shoigu in commemoration of his visit to the DPRK.
